“... It felt good to stand up and join in an honest standing ovation...the audience leapt up and refused to sit back down until it got an encore.” Yukon News

“Chamberlin began solo, at the piano, singing a ballad that gave plenty of opportunity to show off the power of her voice.” Yukon News

“it was good music, well executed ... because of the skillful programming built from a captivating beginning to a rocking finale.” Yukon News

“Gregory Wild’s Highway of Heartache is ... impressive, it is an original musical, with a fine score ... composed by the film’s star, Barbara Chamberlin.” Canadian Publication

Bio

Singer-songwriter, Barbara Chamberlin, is a premier artist from Whitehorse, Yukon. A graduate in Vocal Performance from Lewis and Clark College, she has composed 4 full-length CD's, and is now composing songs for a new CD, due out in June, 2024.

Her most recent, 'Boomerang Girl', was released in September 2014 and with it, she toured the Yukon, US, and Germany to great success. The CD's songs range from the title song's biographical whimsy, to the arched sarcasm of "You're Gonna Miss me when I'm Gone", to the jazzy 'Firefly' flute composition with a nod to Ian Anderson. It's produced by Terry Robb, a 'Muddy' award winner from the Portland, USA.

During Covid, there was not a lot of touring or performing for Barbara Chamberlin, but she is now back, and beginning to play out with various bands and ensembles around the world.

Barbara is also a choir director and teaches piano, guitar, and voice. She loves everything to do with music.
